Local Housing Allowance

Working out your LHA if you are a couple

Working out your Local Housing Allowance if you are a couple

Local Housing Allowance is a new way of working out new claims for Housing Benefit for tenants renting accommodation from a private landlord. It also affects tenants already getting Housing Benefit who move into accommodation rented from a private landlord. Local Housing Allowance is being introduced on 7 April, 2008. If you live in council accommodation or other social housing, Local Housing Allowance will not affect you.

To work out how much benefit you might get you need to find out what Local Housing Allowance rate your benefit will be based on.

If you are part of a couple and do not live with any dependants, your benefit will be based on the one bedroom Local Housing Allowance rate if you live in:

- a self-contained property
- shared accommodation but have two or more rooms (bedrooms or living rooms) that no-one else can use

If you are part of a couple and do not live with any dependants, your benefit will be based on the Local Housing Allowance shared room rate if you live in shared accommodation.

By couple we mean a man and a woman who are married or are living together as if they are married, or two people of the same sex who are civil partners of each other and are members of the same household.

By a self-contained property we mean one where you have your own room plus your own:

- bathroom
- toilet; and
- kitchen (or facilities to cook with)

For example, this could be a one-bedroom flat.

You can find out what the Local Housing Allowance room rates are by checking leaflet HB(LHA)5. You can get this from us at the address shown on the back of this leaflet or at www.torridge.gov.uk

You also need to find out if you can get the full amount of benefit. The amount of benefit you can get may be affected by:

- any money you have coming in
- any savings you have
- how much your rent is
- if we expect anyone living with you to pay towards your rent
- if you share paying the rent with someone else who is not your partner

For more information about this, please get in touch with us at the address shown on the back of this leaflet.

Non-dependants

If you claim benefit you can only get it for yourself and your family. If you share a property with someone who is not part of your family, your benefit may be reduced. This is because we may expect them to pay towards your rent. For more information about this, please get in touch with us at the address on the back of this leaflet.

Joint tenants, care leavers or the severely disabled.

If you are a joint tenant, a care leaver or severely disabled this might affect the benefit you can get. For more information, please get in touch with us at the address on the back of this leaflet.

What if my rent is less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to me?

If your rent is up to £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you might get will still be based on this rate. If your rent is more than £15 less than the Local Housing Allowance rate that applies to you, any benefit you may get will be based on a lower rate.

For details about this, please see HB(LHA)6 Local Housing Allowance: rights and responsibilities
