Torridge District Council's Definition of empty dwellings:

1. Unoccupied and Unfurnished dwelling

There should be no sofas, armchairs, tables, chairs, beds or wardrobes etc., excludes permanently fixed furniture or integrated units, that enables the property to be occupied or capable of occupation.

2. Unoccupied and Unfurnished dwelling undergoing Structural or Requiring/Undergoing Major Repairs

Dwelling is required to be substantially unfurnished.(see 1 above)

Undergoing Structural Alterations – that prevents the property from being occupied or capable of occupation.

Major Repair Works – required to make the property habitable. Certain defects and or renovations taken individually will not constitute major repairs (such as replacing a kitchen/bathroom).
